TRUNK OR TREAT FAQ

What is a trunk or treat?

It is a trick or treating event where vehicles decorate their trunks in halloween theme and line up next to each other. Participating children can trick or treat from car to car.

Two types of tickets will be sold:

- Admission only
- Vehicle Trick or Treat Station

What is the cost?

$25 for vehicle trick or treat station (includes passes for 4 people)
$8 pre sale for general admission/ $10 for general admission at the door

Admission as a Trick or Treat Station:

-Those purchasing admission as a vehicle trick or treat station, must decorate their car and have candy to distribute. The ticket price will be slightly reduced to consider the amount of money will be spent on candy and decorations.

-If you do not decorate you will not be able to park inside. Trick or treat vehicles, will not be allowed to leave until 9:15pm.

-Set-up for the decorated cars will begin at 5:30pm. Only those that are in the car at at time of entry for decorating will be allowed in to decorate.

-There will be a car decorating contest! The best car will be judged by Mrs. Acosta and our Deans! The winner will receive a Celtic Swag bag a gift card and bragging rights!

Will there be food available?

Food trucks will be available to purchase food from. The food trucks that will be availble are Monster burgers, The Brothers Grill, Mexican food and Mr. Duro-Frio serving sno-cones and ice-cream. They will be donating 10% of sales to our school, so please support!

What other activities will there be?

There will be a haunted maze. Kids craft area
